

Award Winning Graphic Novels

Watchmen by Alan Moore

Maus: A Survivor's Tale by Art
Spiegelman

A Drifting Life by Yoshihiro Tatsumi

American Born Chinese by Gene
Luen Yang

Don't forget to check the magazine section for the latest issues of these comics and magazines

The Amazing Spiderman

Archie

Batman

Shojo Beat

Shonen Jump

Superman

HICKORY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

375 THIRD STREET NE
HICKORY, NC 28602

Phone: 828-304-0500

GRAPHIC NOVELS

MANGA

Try an old favorite in a new format

Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte, script by Amy Corzine

The Hound of Baskervilles by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Jules Verne's Twenty-thousand Leagues Under the Sea adapted by Gary Gianni

Manga Messiah by Hidenori Kumai

Frankenstein by Mary Shelley adapted by Marion Mousse

Thoreau at Walden by John Porcellino

Bram Stoker's Dracula adapted by Gary Reed

MANGA

Manga is the term used for Japanese comic books and graphic novels. These types of graphic novels are read from right to left. There are two main subcategories for manga.

SHONEN

Shonen manga is marketed to a male audience from the age of 10 and older. It is typically characterized by high-action, often humorous plots featuring male protagonists.

Check out these Shonen titles

Naruto by Masashi Kishimoto

Bleach by Tite Kubo

Fairy Tail by Hiro Mashima

Dragon Ball by Akira Toriyama

Dragon Ball Z by Akira Toriyama

SHOJO

Shojo manga is marketed to a female audience roughly between the ages of 10 and 18.

Gakuen Alice by Tachibana Higuchi

Vampire Knight by Matsuri Hino

Tokyo Mew Mew by Mia Ikumi

Emma by Kaoru Mori

Fruits Basket by Natsuki Takaya

Me & My Brothers by Hari Tokeino